

Eric Swenson: An Inspired and Inspiring Speaker-Teacher

The challenge for any speaker today is to find the audience's most heartfelt – and often unsaid needs, and leave them inspired, eager to learn God's plan of new opportunities, provide hope, or make changes that will positively impact their way of life.

Eric Swenson is a rare speaker-teacher who can do just that, with a God-given gift and a passion to teach people HOW to be still and experience God, then clarify their PATH from His design.

Who Is Eric Swenson?

Eric speaks to the real life issues keeping people awake at night by drawing on his 40 years of experience creating and growing successful companies, 26 years studying the Holy Bible, coaching both business and government leaders, and guiding people of all ages. Eric's inspired words have changed lives, rebuilt marriages, and shaped successful business outcomes.

Christ-centered approach

Unique among many speakers-teachers, Eric's inspiration comes directly from the Holy Spirit and His Word. Time and time again, Eric shows both spiritual and secular audiences that the answers of today's most pressing questions can be found in the scriptures. Christ's teachings are as relevant today as they were 2000 years ago. Eric shows you how to apply the principles to your life.

Core Themes

Eric specializes in listening to the Holy Spirit's voice to meet the needs specifically for your audience, designed around core inspired themes that people need to hear now;

- Less = More – Our lives have become overloaded. We need less of anything that isn't good for us, and more of the good things that God tells us to seek. Less time on the computer and in front of the TV; more time with the family, more time enjoying life today, right now, and more time with Him. Eric teaches revolutionary ways to reduce stress and achieve work- life balance, and find your God-given purpose in life.
- Performance-based Christianity – We all have been rejected in life, work, or in relationships, but WHY do we continue to strive, when His word says “My GRACE is sufficient for you!” Learn how to break the cycle of striving, and find PEACE only God can give – particularly during the storms of life!
- How Big Would You Dream? – Especially in these tough economic times, too many people “settle.” They toil in a job they dislike, feeling unfulfilled yet refusing to take risks due to fear of failure. But what if you knew you couldn't fail in God's eyes – how big would you dream? Eric engages audiences with life-changing coaching techniques that help people clarify their PATH in God.
